

Arriving to Belgrade

Arriving from air

Flying to Belgrade you will land at Nikola Tesla Airport. From the airport, you can reach the city in multiple ways.

Reaching the city from the airport by bus

This is the cheapest way to reach the city. There are three bus lines:

A1 mini bus (Route: Airport – Slavija Square (Kralja Milutina Street) – Airport)

Approximate travel time - 30 minutes; price: 400 dinars (paid to the driver); from 6:30 until 19:00 on every 25 minutes. From Slavija Square you can reach the conference venue by bus line 31 and trolley lines 19, 21, 22, 29 (10-15 minutes ride).

Public transportation line 72 (Route: Airport-Zeleni Venac Square)

Approximate travel time - 30-40 minutes (and longer); price: 50 dinars (paid via the app – more info here); from 05:25 - 04:50 on each 31-35 minutes. From Zeleni Venac Square you can walk to the conference venue (10 minutes uphill).

Public Transportation Line 600 (Route: Train station "Beograd centar" – Airport)

Approximate travel time – 30-40 minutes; from 05:10 - 04:30 on each 30-35 minutes. Not very convenient if attempting to reach the conference venue.

Reaching the city from the airport by taxi

To take a taxi, you must first obtain a voucher at the designated desk at the arrivals (you will see it after leaving the customs, near the exit from the airport building). The clerk will ask you for the address of your destination point, and provide you with the voucher of appropriate value. With this voucher, you should approach the first available taxi driver standing by the cars in front of the exit (taxi vehicles will be in line, visible from the exit point). Upon reaching your address, you will give the money to the taxi driver (cash, but sometimes also card – you should check this with the driver), and the voucher will guarantee the price, i.e., the amount of money. The price will depend on the exact location, but reaching the city centre from the airport should cost around 2000 - 3000 dinars (20~30 euros).

WARNING: Please be aware that there might be individuals standing in front of the exit and offering a ride. Please ignore them and continue to the line of taxi vehicles in front of the exit.
